Letter from Commodore Dick Kornely

I would start by thanking Paula Feest our past Commodore for the countless hours spent running the MYC over the past year!

A special thank you goes out to Jim Kocian our House Chair who has spent at least 1000 hrs this past year volunteering to keep our kitchen clean, Friday dining and member parties running as smooth as possible.

Our treasurer John Glaeser can be found at the club every day at 6:15 a.m. John and Jan Van Eycke worked many days updating our membership list and compiling the survey results so the Board can use your info to try to make the MYC an even better club!

Thanks Wendy Krueger for staying on as Secretary and with her hubby Jerry do a lot for your club.

2018 welcomed 24 apprentices and all fulfilled all requirements to become full members, Congratulations!

We have over 400 members and our club is in need of some involvement from more members! Just a small amount of members do most of the work so others can enjoy the MYC and all its functions. GET INVOLVED!

Dick

Happy New Year!

We want to thank all who helped and participated in Maureen's Children's Christmas Party on December 22nd! It is such a special day for all the children, parents, and grandparents. Santa really enjoys his time speaking with all our families. The date is marked already for December 21, 2019. Mark your calendars!

Please contact me for any future planning of parties. Dates are starting to fill.

If you have any needs or questions, contact me at 920-905-1650.

Ladies of the Yacht Club

By: Sandie Murray, President

The Ladies of the Yacht Club met on December 3 for their annual fundraiser/Christmas party meeting. It was a successful and meaningful event in that we raised $555. with which we purchased Christmas gifts for three needy families supplied to us by the Manitowoc Public School district. The ladies voted to donate an additional $200 from our club's treasury to fulfill all of the requests on the children's wish lists and give them a happy Christmas. This is one of our most gratifying projects of the whole year and we all loved doing it!

The Ladies of the Yacht

Club will not meet in January in honor of the holidays, but meetings will resume again on February 4. A hair stylist from a local salon will give a presentation on the latest hair styles and techniques. As always, all members are welcome to attend.

Our hope is that everyone had a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!
