Letter from Commodore Dick Metzger

I would like to start out by thanking Dick Kornely, our outgoing commodore, for ALL he has done this past year! Also, a special Thank You to Sharon for letting Dick spend so much time at the club.

We have a very busy year coming up!! Hamburger & Chili will be on Wednesday's January through April and continuing September through October. The Swedish Pancake Breakfast in February, our monthly steak nights, Fourth on the Shore and much more. Please check the "big board" and newsletter for other events and dates.

Thank you to John Glaeser who has come forward taking extra hours to oversee the kitchen.

Thank you to Wendy (Sunshine) Krueger for her years as our dedicated secretary!

All 17 Apprentices of 2019 completed their hours. Thank you for your hard work in finishing the requirements. Remember there are always events that will need your assistance. Please welcome the new 2020 apprentices and make them feel at home.

Happy New Year!!

Nothing to report at this time but please mark your calendar to welcome the new apprentices on January 11th from 1:00 to 3:00.

I hope to see you at many of the events that are planned for this year. We'll need volunteers to help make the events successful. Check the big board to sign up for one or MORE events that you enjoyed helping at or try new events for even more fun!

Enjoy your club and the delicious Friday dining! If you need to reserve the club contact Jane Hurst to get your name on the board.

Feel free to contact/call me if you have any questions. 920-242-2299.

See you at the club!

Events and Information

INFORMATION ABOUT CHILI NIGHT: Clipper City Co-op will be the financial sponsor for the next Yacht Club Hamburger and Chili night on Wednesday, January 22nd.

We have 43 Yacht Club members that are also CCC owners. YOU ARE ONE OF THE 43! AWESOME!

Let's help get to our goal of 750 owners. With over 600 owners currently, we are getting so close to our needed 750 owners.

Please "brainstorm" who you know that would like to learn more about CCC and bring them to Hamburger and Chili night at the Manitowoc Yacht Club on Wednesday, January 22nd.

That evening a CCC Board member will give a short presentation and other Board and Committee members will be available to answer questions throughout the evening.

Thanks to everyone who has invested before the store is open. We couldn't do it without YOU. With 600 owners and counting, we are getting so close to the needed 750 owners.

Thanks, Amy O'Shea and Jan Van Eycke
